

Ryde Master

A mixed type bull who gives growth and confirmation to his progeny with good maternal traits.

Very good temperament.

He has been Champion at the Danish National Show in 1997. At 13½ months – weight 691 kg. His dam Ryde Galla has been Grand Champion twice and twice Interbreed Champion. Both Ryde Galla and Hollandais are producing in the top in Denmark.

Aaberg Pan Polled is heterozygot and he is 4th generation of polled at the sire line.

A middle high but very long bull. A wide back with lot of meat and good depth of hindquarters. Elegant and correct legs. Milk index 107. Slaughter index 108. Birth index 115. Total index 114.

Ryde Rembrandt

High daily gain at 1805 g.
Low feed consumption.
A combination of a very strong cow-family and the french top bull Festin.

Ryde Rembrandt is very large and long and has a lot of meat in his back and croup.

His hindquarters are wide and with a good depth and his legs are strong. He weighs 1000 kg at 2 year and he is 160 cm high.